The BEWSF (Brian E. Wagner Scholarship Fund) proudly awarded scholarships to seniors from four different high schools: Fenwick, ICCP, Timothy Christian and York. The foundation's annual tradition grants college funding to exemplary students who have pro-actively served their community through dedicated volunteer service. The BEWSF's mission aims to encourage high school students to serve as leaders by exercising sound judgment and making a positive impact in their lives and the lives of others. Brian Edwin Wagner tragically passed away in 1993 at the age of 16, he dedicated much of his life assisting his peers and neighbors. Brian's legacy is commemorated by this scholarship program.

Allison Lang (Fenwick High School) will be majoring in Nursing and will attend St. Louis University. She plans on being part of intramural volleyball and the outdoor adventure club. Allison stated, "I am honored to receive this award that remembers Brian E. Wagner, someone who was so dedicated to achieving his goals and being active in

I have lived his by working hard in school and staying come a Nurse Practitioner and to join the Peace
